An organization sponsoring an intern should assign a full-time professional as the Internship Supervisor and agree to the following:

1. Prepare a Letter of Agreement outlining the organization's understanding of the internship it intends to offer, typically under the following headings:
   a) Purpose of the Internship - A brief statement that describes the purpose of the internship and includes a statement on how the program philosophy will be maintained.
   b) Status of the Intern - A brief description of the intern's status within the agency: expected number of hours per week, hourly wage or salary (if any), eligibility for benefits or not, eligibility for promotion or not, etc.
   c) Minimum Qualifications - A statement that describes the minimum qualifications required of applicants for the internship. Minimum qualifications should include education, work experience, personal qualities, and special skills and knowledge.
   d) Job Description - A broad statement of the job function that describes the intern's duties and responsibilities, including the identification of a “chain of command” for reporting purposes. Also include the name and position title of the expected supervisor.
   e) Firm-Specific Guidelines and Requirements for Interns - A detailed list of what the organization expects from the intern and a definition of the organization's obligations to the intern. The former may include items such as the intern's specific job functions and/or the intern's professional responsibilities with regard to the organization's policies for office conduct, etc. The latter may include items such as conditions of continued employment, potential for full-time employment after graduation, mentoring by full-time professionals in the organization, formal communication lines between the supervisor and intern, etc.

2. Prior to advertising the internship position, submit the Letter of Agreement for approval to the department head. This is an agreement between the student, the organization, and the department.

3. Make individual arrangements, if agreed upon between the student and organization, for any wage, stipend or other benefit of service deemed appropriate.

4. Provide pertinent policies and procedures to students prior to the beginning of the internship.

5. Train and provide relevant education and training for the student intern.

6. Supervise and evaluate the intern's performance regularly throughout the term of the internship.

7. Maintain the intern status of the student, to be distinguished from employment status.

8. Notify the department of any decision to remove the student from an internship prior to the agreed upon time, due to the student's failure to comply with rules and regulations, and provide a written report to the department stating the reasons for intern's termination.
