

BWS Architects Scholarship & Paid Internship

Thank you for your interest in the BWS Architects Architectural Scholarship! BWS Architects provides professional design services that are timeless, responsive, and beautiful to change what is possible for our community. As such, BWS Architects would like to give back to the Arizona design community by offering Arizona students an architectural scholarship.

The scholarship is for $1,000 supporting an Arizona resident attending the University of Arizona or Arizona State University within a NAAB-accredited bachelor or master's degree program. To help the scholarship recipient gain professional experience, the recipient may also be offered a paid internship position working for BWS Architects during the scholarship year.

Eligibility

To be eligible for the BWS Architects Architectural Scholarship, students must meet the following criteria:

- Student at the University of Arizona or Arizona State University within a NAAB-accredited bachelor or master's degree program.
 - BArch: Rising 3rd or 4th year student
 - MArch: May be in any year of their Master's degree
- GPA of 3.0 or higher
- Willingness to work for BWS Architects 15hrs / week during the semester
- Interest in the architectural profession and willingness to establish an NCARB record
- Interest in residing in Arizona after graduation

Previous BWS Architects Architectural Scholarship recipients are eligible to reapply in subsequent years.
